

History of Carmine Stefano

Carmine Stefano, founder of the Weston Soccer Club and the Catholic Soccer League which services over 3000 children and youth, passed away suddenly on August 6, 2006 at the age of 53.

Carmine Stefano exemplified excellence and achievement in his advocacy and dedication to youth in his community. Mr. Stefano spent most of his time and efforts leading youth to reach their full potential in a positive and supportive environment through the sport of soccer. Carmine Stefano devoted his entire life to minor sports and youth in the York West area, which has left a legacy with Weston Soccer Club and the Catholic Soccer League and soccer in general. He will be sorely missed by his many friends and the soccer players that benefited through his organization.

Carmine Stefano was a community leader who embodied sportsmanship and responsibility. The contributions that Mr. Stefano has made to the children and their families in the York West area are significant.
